

U.S. ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION

2016 Election Administration & Voting Survey

Statutory Overview

In order to better understand state laws governing Federal elections, the U.S. Election Assistance Commission, as part of its biennial Election Administration and Voting Survey, is collecting information on state election laws and procedures. These answers will help EAC to better understand the quantitative data relating to the 2016 general election that we are collecting from all U.S. states and territories.

EAC understands that responding to this Statutory Overview may require significant staff time on the part of your office. Please be assured that we have attempted to minimize the burden, and we appreciate your cooperation in this very important project.

As appropriate, please provide your state's legal citation for the responses to the questions beginning on the following page.

Please answer each question to the best of your ability. If a term or concept is ambiguous, please explain why. If a question is not applicable to your state, please explain why. If a definition or term lacks statutory reference in your state but is widely used in practice, please explain. If election procedures vary at the local level within your state, please explain these variations to the best of your ability.

The Statutory Overview data collection document has two columns below each question.

- On the left, we have provided you with the answer your state provided for the 2014 Statutory Overview. If there has not been a change in your state's laws or legal citation in the response to a question, please mark the box labeled No Change since 2014 at the top of the left column.
- If the response has changed since 2014 – or your state has not answered this question previously for some reason— please mark the box labeled Changed since 2014 at the top of the right column and then provide the new answer in the text box provided. If your response is too long to fit in the box, please make a note in the text box and place your response in the “Notes” page at the end of the document. Additionally, if a law was repealed in full, please answer “repealed in full” in the box.

If any of your state laws are currently enjoined or otherwise blocked from enforcement by a state or federal court or by executive decision, please specify.

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

NRS 293B.085 Several elective to same offices; effect of overvote.
A mechanical voting system must permit the voter to vote for as many persons for an office as he is lawfully entitled to vote for, but no more. SECTION B: VOTER REGISTRATION

B1. Is your state's voter registration database system best described as a bottom-up, a top-down, or a hybrid? (Note: A bottom-up system generally uploads information retained at the local level and compiled at regular intervals to form the statewide voter registration list. A top-down system is hosted on a single, central platform/mainframe and is generally maintained by the state with information supplied by local jurisdictions. A hybrid is some combination of both systems described above.)

☒ No Change since 2014

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

Nevada has a bottom-up voter registration database system.

Local jurisdictions transmit registration information to the state list on each business night.

☐ No Change since 2014

☒ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

NRS 293.530 states the procedure to move voters from the active list to the inactive list.
Note: UOCAVA voters are subject to the process identified in NRS 293.530.
NRS 293.530 Correction of statewide voter registration list; authority of county clerk to make investigations; county clerk to cancel registration of voter under certain circumstances; maintenance of records regarding notices of cancellation; designation of voter as inactive; regulations. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 293.541:
1. County clerks may use any reliable and reasonable means available to correct the portions of the statewide voter registration list which are relevant to the county clerks and to determine whether a registered voter's current residence is other than that indicated on his application to register to vote.
2. A county clerk may, with the consent of the board of county commissioners, make investigations of registration in the county by census, by house-to-house canvass or by any other method.

2016 Response:

(Description Change Only - legal process remains the same)
A record is classified as "inactive" if the registered voter failed to return a postcard mail pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 293.530.
A record is reclassified as "active" upon confirming that that voter record is still accurate (i.e. voter responds to election mailing, contacts local election official, appears to vote, requests an absent ballot, etc.)
NRS 293.530 applies uniformly to regular and UOCAVA records.

2014 Response:

The use of the National Change of Address is found in NRS 293.5303:
NRS 293.5303 Data concerning change of address of registered voter: Agreement with United States Postal Service or other authorized person for use of data by county clerk. In addition to the methods described in NRS 293.530, the county clerk in each county may enter into an agreement with the United States Postal Service or any person authorized by it to obtain the data compiled by the United States Postal Service concerning changes of addresses of its postal patrons for use by the county clerk to correct the portions of the statewide voter registration list relevant to the county clerk. Nevada uses the National Change of Address as updated information to send letters to correct the portions of the statewide voter registration list relevant to the county clerk. It is important to note that the change of addresses provided to the clerks aren't automatically entered as a voter's new address, but rather as a place to send correspondence to confirm a change of address has been made.

2016 Response:

The Secretary of State's Office receives NCOA information from participation in multi-state organization that provides assistance improving the accuracy of voter registration records. In coordination with Nevada's local election officials, NCOA information is used to perform routine list maintenance.

Additionally, Nevada's local election official can use NCOA information pursuant to NRS 293.5303 (following).

In 2012 Nevada implemented statewide online voter registration and online updates to voter registration information. Voter information obtained online is transmitted to the applicable county election office to be confirmed and merged into the county list of registered voters.

Additionally, our office has the State's voter registration form on our website as a fillable PDF which a voter may complete, print, sign and return.

Lastly, our office now allows UOCAVA voters to register to vote by transmission over the Internet pursuant to NRS 293.320 and 293.501. This is also a complete, print, sign and return procedure.

SECTION C: ELECTION ADMINISTRATION

C1. Please describe how all votes cast at a place other than the voter's precinct of registration are tabulated (for example, please include descriptions of such votes as absentee ballots, mail-in ballots, votes cast at vote centers, provisional ballots, early voting locations, etc.).

☒ No Change since 2014

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

No, in Nevada, as soon as the returns from all the precincts and districts in any county have been received by the board of county commissioners, the board shall meet and canvass the returns. See, NRS 293.387.

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

If paper ballots are used, the results of the absent ballot vote in each precinct must be certified and submitted to the county clerk who shall have the results added to the regular votes of the precinct. The returns of absent ballots must be reported separately from the regular votes of the precinct, unless reporting the returns separately would violate the secrecy of a voter's ballot. 2014 Response:

Yes, Nevada provides for in-person early voting. Early voting is defined as voting by personal appearance beginning the third Saturday preceding a primary or general election and extends through the Friday before election day, Sundays and holidays excepted. See, NRS 293.3568. Ballots are counted at a central location. These votes are reported separately.

☒ No Change since 2014

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

Nevada does count provisional ballots of voters who are registered in different precincts, but not different jurisdictions. Regardless, provisional ballots are not automatically rejected.

After a provisional ballot is cast, a voter has until the Friday after the Tuesday election to provide proof of residence. A clerk or registrar of voters will use this, as well as other research, to determine if the voter's ballot may lawfully be counted.

The process local election officials use in determining whether to count a provisional ballot are found in NRS 293.3085.

NRS 293.3085 Canvass and counting of provisional ballots.

1. Following each election, a canvass of the provisional ballots cast in the election must be conducted pursuant to NRS 293.387 and, if appropriate, pursuant to NRS 293C.387.

2. The county and city clerk shall not:

(a) Include any provisional ballot in the unofficial results reported on election night; or

(b) Open any envelope containing a provisional ballot before 8 a.m. on the Wednesday following election day.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, a provisional ballot must be counted if:

(a) The county or city clerk determines that the person who cast the provisional ballot was registered to vote in the election, eligible to vote in the election and issued the appropriate ballot for the address at which the person resides;

(b) A voter who failed to provide required identification at the polling place or with his or her mailed ballot provides the required identification to the county or city clerk not later than 5 p.m. on the Friday following election day; or

(c) A court order has not been issued by 5 p.m. on the Friday following election day directing that provisional ballots cast pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 293.3081 not be counted, and the provisional ballot was cast pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 293.3081.

4. A provisional ballot must not be counted if the county or city clerk determines that the person who cast the provisional ballot cast the wrong ballot for the address at which the person resides.

A post-election audit refers to hand-counting votes on paper records and comparing those counts to the corresponding vote counts originally reported, as a check on the accuracy of election results, and resolving discrepancies using accurate hand counts of the paper records as the benchmark.

If your state has post-election auditing, consider including in your response information such as the unit being audited (e.g., precincts, machines); the sampling method (e.g., fixed percentages); whether there is a specific trigger for the audit; the location of the random selection (e.g., state, county); and the races that can be audited.

☐ Changed since 2014

2014 Response:

The capture of over-votes is codified in NRS 293B.085. NRS 293B.085 Several elective to same offices; effect of overvote. A mechanical voting system must permit the voter to vote for as many persons for an office as he is lawfully entitled to vote for, but no more. If a voter casts more votes for an office than he is lawfully entitled, the counting device or electronic computer must be programmed so that those votes are not counted. The remainder of the voter's ballot must be counted if it is otherwise lawfully voted. Also see, NRS 293.3677 (when counting a vote in an election, if more choices than permitted by the instructions for a ballot are marked for any office or question, the vote for that office or question may not be counted). The capture of under-votes is also captured in the mechanical voting system, and will be counted. The ability of Nevada's mechanical voting machines to be able to perform this function is tested and verified in NRS 293B.385(2)(d) (Where multiple votes may be cast, the maximum number of votes permitted a voter cannot be exceeded without rejecting the vote for that selection, but any undervote will be counted).
