MEMORANDUM

From: Brooke Watters, Acting Testing & Certification Director
Date: February 24, 2025
Subject: Update of Certification for SLI Compliance, a Division of Gaming Laboratories International

On September 18, 2024, SLI Compliance, a division of Gaming Laboratories International, LLC (SLI) completed all requirements to remain in good standing with the EAC's Testing and Certification program per the "Voting System Test Laboratory Manual".

On February 12, 2025, the EAC issued an updated Certificate of Accreditation recognizing the completion of the EAC VSTL assessment ensuring that laboratory policies are in place regarding compliance management and issues like conflict of interest, record maintenance, and financial stability.

Due to an administrative error, the SLI Certificate of Accreditation issued on February 12, 2025, incorrectly listed that SLI received its original accreditation on February 24, 2015. SLI Compliance was accredited by the EAC on February 28, 2007, under the original name SysTest Labs Incorporated.

On February 24, 2025, the EAC issued an updated Certificate of Accreditation to SLI, reflecting the appropriate original accreditation date. The certificate update accurately reflects the original accreditation date February 28, 2007, ensuring continuity and compliance with the established guidelines.
